FRIDAY NEXT will be the last day on which ASSESSMENTS can be made in time for the October Election. (Some say that Saturday is in time, but we indicate Friday, to make sure of it.) We urge upon every Democrat the importance of attending to this duty at once. DO NOT LET IT BE NEGLECTED.

Bear in mind that the Election will take place on the second Tuesday of October, (14th).

THE TICKET COMPLETE.

The Democratic County Convention reassembled at the Court-house on Saturday last, for the nomination of candidates for Prothonotary and Coroner. The utmost harmony and good feeling prevailed throughout the proceedings. Jacob Bushby, Esq., of Gettysburg, was nominated for Prothonotary, by acclamation, and Dr. Henry A.

Lilly, of Conowingo, for Coroner, also by acclamation.

Mr. Bushby filled the office of Prothonotary from 1857 to 1860 in the most acceptable manner. No one ever performed its important duties better, and his selection by the Convention was but in accordance with a generally expressed wish that his services should again be secured. An excellent clerk, careful and correct, of an obliging disposition, and speaking English and German equally well, he is one of the few men exactly fitted for the post. And that the people will put him there, where he is so much needed, we do not for a moment doubt.

Dr. Lilly is a physician of high standing, respected by all who know him. He has admirable qualifications for the position, and enjoying with a wide-spread popularity, his triumphant election may also be looked for.

The Democratic ticket—the White Man's ticket for the Constitution and the Union—is thus complete. Conservative voters of all parties, RALLY TO ITS SUPPORT, and administer to Abolitionism such a rebuke as will cow it and crush it forever.

There is no mistaking the temper of the army of McClellan. Officers and men have the most unlimited confidence in him, and have nothing but curses for those hide-bound demagogues and fanatics who are constantly finding fault with and denouncing him (because he is a Democrat). The army understand the reason for their course, and have no hesitation in pronouncing it political. This we had the best evidence of, on scores of occasions, whilst at Sharpsburg, last week. We observed conservative as McClellan and the Democratic party. They are fighting for the Union and the Constitution, and have no idea of periling their lives one moment for

GEN. A. H. COFFROTH.

From the Fulton Democrat we take the following: We think the Democracy of this Congressional district have reason to congratulate themselves on the nomination of Gen. A. H. Coffroth, of Somerset, as their candidate for Congress. Though comparatively a young man, he has been recognized for a number of years as among the leaders of the Somerset bar, which has been long distinguished for the ability of its members.

Indeed there is no spot in the State which has furnished the State, and the nation, more talent in proportion to its population than Somerset county. The position of Gen. Coffroth at home, and the fact that he is recognized as the leader of the Democracy there, is sufficient evidence of his capacity and fitness to fill the position for which he has been nominated. At the time when delegates were being selected to represent the Democracy in the National Convention at Charleston, he took a bold stand in favor of Mr. Douglas and succeeded in securing a position as a delegate in spite of the strong opposition of many of the leading men of the county. At Charleston and Baltimore he adhered to the fortunes of his favorite, and stood boldly by him during the campaign. But while he did this on principle, it is on principle that he still clings fast to the old landmarks of Democracy as the only hope of our distressed country. Until

Gen. Coffroth be sent to represent this district at Washington, it would do much to ward checking the fanatic and ruinous course which has been persisted in by the Republican majority in the present Congress. The Abolitionism of that body has done much toward completing the ruin of our once happy country. Of all the acts passed by them, scarcely a single one can be called wise and judicious. By them the South has been made a unit, and the North divided and distracted, and to them is chiefly owing the ill-success of our arms.

The blood of many thousands of brave men, whose lives might have been saved, calls from the ground against them. Their course has lent tenfold atrocity to the existing war, and indefinitely delayed the cherished hopes of the friends of the Union. The people must turn out every man of them who has identified himself with the mad schemes of the ultra Abolitionists. Among them Edward McPherson, who has been little than an echo of the voice of old Thaddeus. Every vote of Mr. McPherson was with the radicals, and against the conservative men of his own party; his name and the name of Stevens stood side by side all the time. We do not see how any conservative Republican can support him, and we are sure many will refuse to do so. Let the masses who are opposed to Abolitionism rally to the support of General Coffroth, who, while in favor of a vigorous prosecution of the war, insists that it shall be carried on for the single great purpose of restoring the Union as it was, under the Constitution which forms the basis of all our liberties.

Until the halls of Congress are filled with a different style of men from those now holding seats, we see no hopes of a restoration of the Union—the only prospect before us, under the present rule, being a desolation, the end of which no man can see.

The Bedford Gazette says: Gen. Coffroth, the nominee for Congress, is a native of Somerset county, learned the printing business, when a boy, in the Somerset Union office, and afterwards became the editor of that paper. Having been admitted to the bar, he retired from the editorial profession, and has since attained to an extensive and lucrative practice. In 1859, he was one of the Democratic candidates for the Legislature in the late district of Bedford and Somerset, and led his ticket about 400 votes.

He will again poll a large vote in his own county, and we confidently predict his election.

The Philadelphia Democratic Ledger says:

A. H. Coffroth, of Somerset, has been nominated by the Democrats of his district for Congress. Mr. C. is a thorough Democrat, and will make an able and efficient representative.

STATE SENATOR.

WM. McSHERRY, Esq., of Adams county, was nominated by the Senatorial Conference for State Senator. This regard as a most excellent choice. Though we are not personally acquainted with Mr. Mc-Sherry, yet we know enough about him to enable us to say he is a gentleman of high

ABOLITION OPPOSED TO UNION VIC-TORIES.

The Chicago Tribune is the organ of the Abolition Republican party in the West and North-west. It is ably edited, and has the confidence and support of that party in all sections of the Union. Its Washington correspondent is full in the secrets of the active and influential leaders of the Abolition Republican party at the Capital, and sometimes reveals, in a short spicy manner, the real meaning and intent of that treasonable faction. This is particularly the case in a letter to that journal dated September the 9th, in which the following remarkable passage occurs:

"A great victory by the army under General McClellan will set the seal of permanence to the reign of West Point over the President. Congress, people will obey its spirit. Every thinking man can see what Government, by the grace of West Point, means. 'Politically,' said a distinguished Western man, 'the victory which McClellan secures on the 10th of September, will set the seal on the Union, and will set us back six months.' We have lost that much time in four days.

The meaning of all this opposition to Union victories, unless gained by well known Abolition Generals, such as Hunter or Fremont, is perfectly plain—they will set the Abolition Republican party against the Union back, six months, but for all time to come. But is the country prepared to bear patiently this tampering with the honor of the nation and the lives of tens of thousands of its best citizens, by the Abolition Republican enemies both of the Union and the gallant young leader of its forces? Are the people willing that a dangerous political faction shall use all possible means to bring defeat upon the Federal army, and when they fail in their treasonable designs, insult the whole nation by openly proclaiming that, 'politically the victory which McClellan will, I am persuaded, win in Maryland, the blow which he will deal the rebellion, will set us back six months?' It is the Abolition Republican party before the Union or the success of its forces. It is saying, in other words, let McClellan and his brave army be slaughtered; let the Capital be taken; let Pennsylvania be invaded; 'let the Union slide'; but let not the Union force win a battle whilst under the command of General McClellan, for that will 'set the Abolition Republican party back six months.'

The Republican leaders must take

"J. B." (John Busby) in charge. Another

"card"—so muddy, so ill-tempered, and understood, so decidedly Radical—and he is ruined. His greed for office blinds him, as venom does the snake. Probably the leaders see this—probably they try to curb him—and, probably, they find they have caught what is an unreasonable, willful and bad-humored creature. We say, probably, we don't know. But those who know him will have their guess.

Busby is exceedingly anxious to get rid of Abolitionism—seeing, as he does, that the Union is not popular with the people.

But he puts a bad face on it.

Did he not vote for John Rose, an Abolition turned-out, for Speaker of the House, against Col. William Hopkins, an earnest and able Douglas Democrat?

Did he not vote for E. H. Russell, a radical Know Nothing Abolitionist, for Clerk, against Capt. Jacob Ziegler, another Douglas Democrat?

Were not all his votes of this character in the organization of the House?

Did he not vote for Henry D. Moore, prominent in the Abolitionized opposition and the great leader of the Know Nothings in Philadelphia, for State Treasurer, against

Wm. V. McGrath, a prominent Douglas Democrat?

Did he not DODGE the vote on giving the Hall of the House to Wendell Phillips, who openly declared that for thirty years he desired and worked for the dissolution of this Union? Busby may say he was not there. Why not? It is his duty to be there, and the record does not show that he had diers have felt the effect of this negro business, and want no more of it.

Thaddeus Stevens is becoming alarmed. He publishes a card in the Lancaster Express, denying that he "ever uttered the sentiment," that, "rather than give concessions to rebels, he would see the Government shattered into ten thousand atoms." Upon this the Intelligencer produces the fol-

GEN. A. H. COFFROTH.

this Congressional district have reason to

LATEST WAR NEWS

I, Abraham Lincoln, President of the United States of America, and Commander-in-Chief of the Army and Navy thereof, do hereby proclaim and declare that hereafter, as heretofore, the war will be prosecuted for the object of practically restoring the constitutional relations between the Union and each of the States, to which they have returned in which States that relation is or may be suspended or disturbed: that it is my purpose, upon the next meeting of Congress, to again recommend the adoption of a practical measure tendering pecuniary aid to the free acceptance or rejection of all slave States, or the people thereof, who may not then be in rebellion against the United States, and which States may then have voluntarily adopted, or thereafter may voluntarily adopt, immediate or gradual extinction of slavery within their respective limits; and that the effort to colonize persons of African descent, with their consent, upon this continent, or elsewhere, not the previously obtained consent of the Government existing there, will be continued; that on the first day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, all persons held as slaves within any State, or designated parts of a State, the people whereof are then in rebellion against the United States, shall be then, thenceforward and forever free, and the Executive Government of the United States, including the military and naval authorities thereof, will recognize and maintain the freedom of such persons, and will do no act to restrain such persons, or any of them, in any effort to secure their own actual freedom; that the Executive will, on the first day of January aforesaid, by proclamation, designate the States and parts of States, if any, in which the people thereof respectively shall then be in rebellion against the United States, and the fact that any State, or the people thereof, shall on that day be in good faith reëntering the Congress of the United States, by members chosen thereto at elections wherein a majority of the qualified voters of such State shall have participated, shall, in the absence of strong contravening testimony, be deemed evidence that such State and the people thereof are not in rebellion against the United States; that attention is hereby called to an act of Congress, entitled "An Act to make an additional article of war," approved March 3, 1862, and which act is in the words and figures following:

Sec. 1. And he it further enacted, That hereafter the following shall be promulgated as an additional article of war for the government of the army of the United States, and shall be observed as such article:

All officers or persons in the military or naval service of the United States are prohibited from employing any of the forces under their command as auxiliaries for the purpose of returning fugitives from service or labor, who have escaped from any persons to whom such service or labor is claimed to be due; and any officer who shall be found guilty, by a court-martial, of violating this article, shall be dismissed from the service.

Sec. 2. And he it further enacted, That this act shall take effect from and after its passage.

Also, to the ninth and tenth sections of an act, entitled "An Act to suppress insurrection, to punish treason and rebellion, to seize and confiscate the property of rebels, and for other purposes," approved July 17, 1862, and which sections are in the words and figures following:

SECTION 9. And he it further enacted, That all slaves of persons who shall hereafter be engaged in rebellion against the Government of the United States, or who shall in any way aid or comfort therein, and captured from such persons, and taken into custody within the lines of the army, and all slaves captured from such persons or deserted by them, and coming under the control of the government of the U. States; and all slaves of such persons found on, or being within any place occupied by the forces of the United States, or the forces of any captives, and shall be forever free of their servitude, and not again held as slaves.

Sec. 10. And he it further enacted, That no slave escaping into any State or Territory, or the District of Columbia, from any other State, shall be delivered up, or in any way punished or hindered of his liberty except for crime of his own commission; and no person claiming said fugitive shall first make oath that the person to whom the labor or service of such fugitive is alleged to be due is his lawful owner, and has not borne arms against the U. S. in the present rebellion, nor in any way aided or comforted the rebellion; and no person engaged in the military or naval service of the United States shall, under any pretence whatever, assume to decide on the validity of the claim of any person to the service or labor of any other person or surrender up any such person to the claimant, on pain of being punished from the service.

And I do hereby recommend, in order, all persons engaged in the military and naval service of the United States to observe, obey and enforce, within their respective spheres of service, the acts and sections above written; and the Executive will in due time recommend that all citizens of the U. S. do the same, all rebels and traitors, throughout the rebellion, shall, upon the restoration of the constitutional relations between the United States and their respective States and the people, if that relation shall have been suspended or disturbed, be compensated for all loss by acts of the United States, and the people thereof.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be fixed.

Done at the City of Washington this 22d day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, and of the Independence of the U. S. the thirty-eighth.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

WILLIAM H. SEWARD,
Secretary of State.

ANOTHER PROCLAMATION.
WASHINGTON, Sept. 24.
By the President of the United States of America:

A PROCLAMATION.

Whereas it has become necessary to call into service not only volunteers, but also portions of the militia of the States by draft, in order to suppress the insurrection existing in the United States; and as disloyal persons are not unequal to the assistance of the ordinary process of law from hindering this measure and from giving aid and comfort in various ways to the insurrection. Now, therefore, be it—

*Ordered, Be it—*That during the existing insurrection, and as a necessary measure for its suppression, all persons, all rebels and aiders, their aiders and abettors within the United States, and all persons discouraging volunteer enlistments, resisting military drafts, or guilty of any disloyal practice affording aid and comfort to rebels, against the authority of the United States, shall be subject to the penalties of law, and liable to trial and punishment by courts-martial, or military commissions.

*Second.—*That the writ of habeas corpus is suspended in respect to all persons arrested, or who are now, or hereafter, during the rebellion, shall be imprisoned in any fort, camp, arsenal, military prison, or other place of detention, and of any military authority, by the sentence of court-martial, or military commission.

In witness whereof I herewith set my hand and cause the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington this twenty-second day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, and of the independence of the United States the eighty-seventh.

[From the Sun of Saturday.]

Information is received that General McClellan still had his headquarters at Sharp's Ford, occupied by, On that day the Federal forces occupied the heights between the Potomac and the river, and the Confederates were forced to abandon the river. A heavy portion of the army was at Williamsport. The Federal pickets occupy the country in Virginia, three miles out from Harper's Ferry, where they meet the outposts of the Confederates. The Federal forces at Warrenton will be a force of one regiment. The Confederates are rebuilding the bridge over the Rappahannock, indicating that they intend to dispute the possession of the country between the river and Washington.

There is nothing of importance to report from the West.

Southern papers claim the battle of Antietam as a Confederate success, estimating their loss in the engagement at five thousand and killed, wounded and missing. Gen. Stark, of Mississippi, and Branch, of North Carolina, were killed, and six others wounded.

The towns of Charleston, Ripley and Spencer, in Western Virginia, are now occupied by Confederate troops. With the exception of Point Pleasant, the Federal troops do not hold a single post south of the Little Kanawha river.

Yesterday a number of the Governors of the Southern States, who participated in the late conference at Atlanta, called on President Lincoln and presented an address in which the Governors—speaking for themselves and the people of the States which they represent—pledged to support and maintain the constitutional authority of the President, and to give him their aid in the execution of his duties. They urged him to an early termination of the war, and to him upon the emancipation proclamation believing that it is a measure of sound policy, and that it will be productive of good. All the Governors signed the address, with the exception of Governor Bradford, of the State of Massachusetts. His opinion that the proclamation might not prove as efficacious as the conference hoped, and regarding the matter as too doubtful to justify them in supporting it.

IMPORTANT FROM WASHINGTON.

The Schemes of the Abolitionists in Called General McClellan—General Hunter to be his Successor—Startling Disclosures!

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23.—The secret history of the Government for the past two months, will no doubt show many strange things, if ever it shall be written; but much of it, we are glad to state, will be connected with the appointment and reappointments of Gen. McClellan. There is a rumor current to-day, that meets general belief, that Gen. McClellan is about to be superseded in the command of the army by General David Hunter. It is stated by the Government of the rumor that on the day of General McClellan's appointment, about two weeks ago, President Lincoln was waited upon by General Halleck and informed that either General Stoneman, Jackson or General George B. McClellan would be in possession of Washington within forty-eight hours, and it rested with him to determine. It was then that the President, being thus urged Mr. Lincoln made the appointment of McClellan as Commander-in-Chief of the army of the Potomac.

It is also stated, in this connection, that on the evening of the day of his appointment, General McClellan was called upon by General Seward, and asked to forgive Mr. Seward's indiscretion in naming a man had put upon him; and that he replied that he could neither forgive nor forget. He accepted the appointment, however, on being urged, and having it represented to him that it was essential for him to do so for the salvation of the country.

It is also stated, that the President has been determined and persistent effort to oust him from his post and it is thought possible that the President has yielded to these importunities, inasmuch as the same party have likewise importuned him to issue his Abolition manifesto.

It is also stated, that it is known here that Hunter's friends have been urging him to an important appointment, and it may be to acquire control of the army, either this way or through the conspiracy of the Governors, so that the radicals may have Lincoln to dance as they pull the wires, and give places to their pet tool, Fremont. We are on the eve of the conspiracy.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23.—The emancipation proclamation of the President claims much comment, and by many is regretted as one of the worst steps that could have been made to follow our recent splendid successes.

GEN. McCLELLAN.

The Washington correspondent of the Boston Traveler, who has been strongly and McClellan, says in his letter of Thursday week:—"To-day, McClellan is a rising man. The soldiers new and old adore him. I cannot account for it, but such is the fact. I reveal no important secret when I state that the Government was compelled to reinstate McClellan by the violent feeling in his favor among the troops. He rode out among the troops yesterday, and they went wild with enthusiasm at the bare sight of him. Who is the secret of this feeling in his favor? Who can tell me? Under the circumstances, can any one censure the President for the course he has taken?"

Whilst such is the popularity of Gen. McClellan in the army, scheming radicals in Washington are working night and day to have him removed. A Washington dispatch on Wednesday last, to the Constitutional Union, says:

REMOVAL OF GENERAL McCLELLAN.

The rumor that General George B. McClellan has again been, or is to be removed from the army of the Potomac, continues to circulate to-day, and gains credence with many. I have no longer any doubt but that if he is not already removed, the arrangements are already perfected for such removal. With McClellan's indomitable courage, army is again at rest. Neither have I much doubt that General Hunter will be appointed to the command.

ROOM TO BE MADE FOR THE WOOLLY HORSE.

There is a strong effort being made here to make room for General Fremont by displacing McClellan. The latter is the true friend of General McClellan, and he cannot be retained in his present position General McClellan is superseded by Hunter. Hence when the latter change is made, a vacancy will soon occur in which to install the capor of the Woolly Horse. This is the hope of the radicals, who are saying that have President Lincoln, and his following, body and soul, and will mould him to suit whatever object they seek to carry out.

Significant!—An Abolition Serenade came off at Washington on Wednesday evening, occasioned by the President's Emancipation Proclamation. The President, Sec. Chase and Cassius M. Clay made speeches. Attorney General Bates made some remarks, but he refused to speak of the Emancipation Proclamation, which refusal created considerable comment. While he was speaking of the Mississippi Valley, persons in the crowd repeatedly asked, "what about the proclamation?" and at last, when the cries were redoubled, as he seemed about to retire without alluding to it, he said, "I will not discuss the merits of my superior, the cotton-wool, gentlemen; I will not discuss the rights of the negro, but I will speak before a promiscuous crowd." A portion of the populace then proceeded to secede.

SOLDIERS' RELIEF.—The "Ladies R Association" of Gettysburg, forwarded to care of Rev. Mr. Bucher at Keedysville Saturday night, two large boxes of Banded Linen and Delicacies, of the choicest kind,—of which was kindly contributed by the ladies of Cashtown and vicinity, and send down Mr. Henry Micky : to whom and the lady contributors the thanks of the Association are tendered for their prompt and kindly aid to the suffering.—The box sent by the Association contained the following articles: bandages, 5 packages linen, 23 shirts, 13 drawers, 8 arm straps, 9 towels, 3 pillow-cases, 1 pillow, 1 pair plippers, a number of bunches of old linen and cotton, compresses, 16 and tumblers jelly, 4 cans of fruit, 10 bottles wine, 6 packages of corn-starch and farina, 40 barley, 1 bag biscuit, 6 pieces soap, &c,—all of which were collected in two days; the kind contributions of our Ladies. The rest from Cashtown and vicinity, was large, consisted of Bandages.

We are requested to say that the Ladies Association are preparing another box for the relief of the suffering, and will be glad to receive contributions therefor as promptly possible.

There were also three boxes sent under the kind supervision of the Mrs. Fahnestock to Hagerstown, containing choice articles for the sick and wounded.—Sentinel of Wednesday.

We understand there was another box sent on Friday last to Frederick, containing a great variety of useful articles and delicacies for the sick and wounded soldiers; the ladies desiring to send it off without delay we have not been furnished with a list of articles or the names of the patriotic contributors.

Terrible Railroad Collision.—On Friday morning, a troop train and a freight train came in collision (because of a donkey engine) at the Cumberland Valley Railroad, near Sny, Pa. The freight train, which was piled three deep, and a awful lot of men and horses were killed and injured. Ten or twelve soldiers were killed and thirty wounded. They were returning their homes, at Reading and Philadelphia.

The New York Express of Thursday says: "The stock market was immensely in to-day—first by the proclamation, and by the radical triumph in this State over conservative republicans in convention. Fancy stocks jumped up three per cent. on railways two per cent., while government bonds advanced one per cent. On the 17th day before the proclamation to 1200 and with an upward tendency, after a few causes have ceased to operate. The news public reason that, as the proclamation has indefinitely prolonged the war, paper money inflation must correspondingly increase the length of the war, and this rise in stock prices." At Philadelphia the same excitement prevailed.
